On Saturday, October 14th, 2017, the Haunt Rater and his crew went down to New Jersey to pay a special visit to Brighton Asylum! This was our first visit to this attraction and we had no idea what we would be in for. We had no idea what to expect. Would it be great or would it be a disappointment? Well, read below to see how we answer this question!

Brighton Asylum has two "Top Tiered" attractions that were more than great...they were unlike anything we have ever experienced before and we have experienced a lot! We started the night by entering The Asylum! This place was insane! You enter only to meet the craziest, most insane residents that this asylum could have. Each one, scarier and darker than the last. They came from all sides, from below as well as from up above. No place is safe, nowhere to run or hide, nowhere to take cover. The best scares delivered. Every twist and turn just let us to even more horror.

As you wind your way through its corridors you come to realize that horror has found its home at Brighton Asylum and it is there to stay. Even some uninvited guests have found made the Asylum their permanent residence. There is no escaping the terror that is unleashed upon you inside those walls. Screams can be heard from all around as victims pass by each demented soul. At the end of our visit, we finished by making our way through a "Foam Tunnel" which covered us entirely.

The second attraction, The Tunnel, was also an amazing experience! Upon entering you are taken into a room where you are seated and decontamination takes place. You will come to find that the Tunnel only leads to certain death for those who are unable to successfully navigate it. It seemed as if we were constantly living in fear as we made our way through. Constantly followed by zombies and the undead, monsters that haunt your worst dreams greet you into their permanent home, looking to make you their next meal.

There is no doubt that Brighton Asylum has gone above and beyond the call to scare each and every one of their victims. They dare to scare and accomplish it quite successfully. This haunted attraction is literally off the charts which is why The Haunt Rater has provided Brighton Asylum with a rating of 6 out of 5! The experience is like none we have ever seen or experienced before. We are glad to finally see this kind of innovation and creativity in a haunt.!

If you have not been to Brighton Asylum then, you need to go in 2017! This is one that you do not want to miss out on! Everyone should experience Brighton Asylum at least once in their lifetime!
