

2017 Review Card

October 13, 2017

	Category	Rating Scale	Comments
1)	Design		Designs flowed and were created quite well to fit each scene which added to the environment and scare factor.
2)	Theme		Themes flowed as well and each attraction had its own style and story to follow which made the experience that much more terrifying.
3)	Actors		Actors were on their game! Did not break character and provided for a fearful and entertaining experience. Job Well Done!
4)	Scare Factor		The Scare Factor was definitely there. Jason's Woods is on the upswing of delivering true terror to the hearts of its victims!
5)	Overall Rating		We have provided a 5 out of 5 rating for Jason's Woods!" Innovation and a whole new level of horror!

On Friday, October 13th, 2017, the Haunt Rater and his crew visited Jason's Woods. We have been out to Jason's Woods since we started our organization 9 years ago. Some attractions go through a roller coaster ride where they experience times of highs and lows. Jason's Woods has always been a big name but, now that name is getting even bigger and even better! The innovation that is going into the next generation of Jason's Woods is ground breaking and it can only go up from here!

Upon arrival, we were able to start our experience at the Haunted Hayride. When it comes to Haunted Hayrides, we have come to find that it has become increasingly harder year after year to scare people. But, Jason's Woods has introduced the next generation of Hayrides! Last year when we were told about this news, we could hardly believe that more could be done to intensify the experience of a good Haunted Hayride. This year...they have found a way to introduce more senses and experiences to turn things around for what is thought of as the modern hayride but, really is now in the upswing of returning to Haunted Hayrides! We do not want to spoil it for you but, we urge you to go and check it out for yourselves! "A must see for 2017!"

After departing the Haunted Hayride, we journey and got Lost in Jason's Woods! The opportunity to make your way through the open woods, in the dark, not knowing where creatures are lurking is enough to send chills up your spine. Any turn could be hiding the worst monsters imaginable. You never know what might show up next!

After making it out of Jason's Woods alive and in one piece, we made our way over to the Zombie Apocalypse. When you enter an attraction full of zombies, you can only expect them to torture you every step of the way. Walking with the constant fear and paranoia of being followed, waiting to become their very next meal. This attraction kept us looking over our shoulders the whole way through and kept us searching for a way out before we were to become the next permanent victims of the Zombie Apocalypse.

Next we went into the Chamber of Horrors. No more than seconds into this attraction, we realized we wanted out as soon as possible. Darkness enshrouded us and left us without any knowledge of how we would escape the horror that was hiding behind every wall, nook and cranny that could be found within. Monsters waiting for us, wanting to take us as their permanent residents of their chamber. This experience left us wanting to experience more of what Jason's Woods had to offer.

The final attraction of the night was Carnival of Fear! This place was creepy and they did all they could to deliver the fear. They followed us endlessly, separated us, bringing us individual scares as well as preventing us from being able to escape so quickly as they wanted to have us join their carnival as one of their twisted sideshow freaks. Having no desire to join them, we quickly made our way through, only to be constantly greeted by one terrifying clown after another.

Jason's Woods has done a bang-up job and proved that they can still compete with the best of them and they have sure proven that to us. There is no doubt that Jason's Woods is going higher than ever before, being more innovative than ever thought imaginable, redesigning and redefining not only itself but, how a real Haunted Hayride should be experienced! The Haunt Rater has given Jason's Woods a 5 out of 5 for proving to everyone that "Yes you can and yes they did!" We truly cannot wait to see the next generation of scares and experiences that Jason's Woods has up their sleeves! Experience the horror only at Jason's Woods!
