THE VALLEY OF FEAR

September 30, 2017

| | Category | Rating Scale | Comments |
|----|----------------|---|--|
| 1) | Design |  | Designs were great and were well created to fit the themes and scenes within all 3 attractions. |
| 2) | Theme |  | Each attraction had its own theme that flowed very well from one scene to the next while being able to effectively scare fans every step of the way. |
| 3) | Actors |  | Actors did quite well in keeping groups separated and interacting with victims as each group made its way through each scene. |
| 4) | Scare Factor |  | The scare factor was top notch. Each attraction from the Hayride to the Facility to Scarytales got even more frightening as we continued on through. |
| 5) | Overall Rating |  | The Haunt Rater has given Valley of Fear a 5 out of 5 rating! What an amazing job and great haunted attraction. We highly recommend attending this attraction! |

On Saturday, September 30th, 2017, the Haunt Rater and his crew made it out to visit Valley of Fear! We did not know how our night would go. But what we can say is that we were definitely not disappointed in the least bit. Upon arriving we could see that the house was packed with people who were ready to have the living hell scared out of them. Well, we were no different.

Our first attraction of the night was the Original Haunted Hayride which was a cool yet different experience. Instead of facing the center of the wagon, you are seated on the outside edge of the wagon where you are able to face fear head on as you arrive to each and every scene. This experience alone really takes that feeling of safety away and gives you a slight hint of what you are about to experience as you head into the other attractions that will follow.

We then made our way over to The Facility. This attraction was exciting and kept us on our toes as we moved from scene to scene. We were taken into a room where we were instructed about our visit and the do's and don'ts to be aware of as we enter this attraction at our own risk. Lost souls found us at every turn as they tried to make us their next victim, never to leave that building and to remain forever trapped with them. We barely made it through alive!

Our final attraction, "Scarytales" was amazing and our personal favorite! We are speechless about the experience we had within. We first met the man, the myth, the legend...Rumplestiltskin himself! He began our final experience of terror by having each of us enter into one of three doors alone. With only three of us in the group, we were each at our own door, not knowing what was behind each of our doors awaiting us. After surviving on our own for a short time we made our way through, experiencing different fairytales turned "Scarytales." We eventually made our way and found the Mad Hatter, Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum and Alice who truly scare us to our core! They were great!! We eventually made our way out but, barely with our lives.

For this and many more reasons, The Haunt Rater has given Valley of Fear a 5 out of 5! What an amazing night, at an amazing attraction with one amazing experience to add to our books! If there is a haunt to see this season...this really needs to be on your list!
