

On Saturday October 19th, 2019, The Haunt Rater visited Bloodshed Farms Fear Fest. Legend has it, that multiple people went missing here. The only way that they could identify the bodies was from the DNA from teeth, flesh etc. Will we be the next victims?

CLOWN-O-PHOBIA

Up first is Clown-O-Phobia! For those who follow along with our reviews should know by now that I love clowns! There is a whole fun house dedicated to clowns. I'm in heaven, or is it hell? We are greeted by our first clown. A clown named sugar, don't let the name fool you, sugar she is not! We escape Sugars lair and move quickly just to have another killer clown block our escape route. Every twist and turn crazy clowns are waiting for us! If you have a fear of clowns, then this not where you want to be. Clown-O-Phobia will terrify the hell out of you!

HELLSGATE ASYLUM

After escaping all those "lovable" clowns we take our chances at Hellsgate Asylum. As we approach the line, we get an eerie feeling right away. The fog was dense and the screams from within were deafening! The darkness within these walls were none that you could possibly imagine. I imagine everything in the Asylum is a representation of what Hell may look like. If that is the case, you can count me out! There was no shortage of freaks, monsters and hells creatures. Hellsgate Asylum will make Hell look like a vacation!

TRAIL OF TERROR

Barely getting out of the Asylum, we head on over to the Trail of Terror! A terrifying trail that goes through a partial cornfield, woods and buildings. As you make your way through the trail you're harassed by numerous monsters, freaks and ghouls. The layout of this trail is perfect, at times you feel as if you may be walking in circles, a never-ending Trail of Terror! Come walk the trail, see if you can make it out alive.

THE LAST RIDE

We finish off our night with The Last Ride Haunted Hayride. This hayride is not like any other hayride you'll experience. We at Haunt Rater have a saying "If you can't scare them, entertain them!" This hayride is full of fear and cheers! It is a very entertaining hayride. The actors were amazing and appeared to be highly trained. Each scene was done in its own unique way and again, there was no shortage of monsters!

This was our first time at Bloodshed Farms, they did not disappoint. Bloodshed Farms is truly Terrifying.
