

On Friday October 18th, 2019 The Haunt Rater crew visited Terror Farm in Newport, Pennsylvania. We named Terror Farm the #1 Haunted Farm in Pennsylvania for 2018. This is Terror Farms second year; will they blow our minds again?

Upon arriving we noticed changes right away. The que line has been updated, personally it gave me the feeling as if we were Cattle waiting to be loaded into the slaughterhouse. As we waited in line, we were harassed by a disfigured freak of nature and a psychotic clown. With these two outside entertaining us, we can only imagine what awaits us.

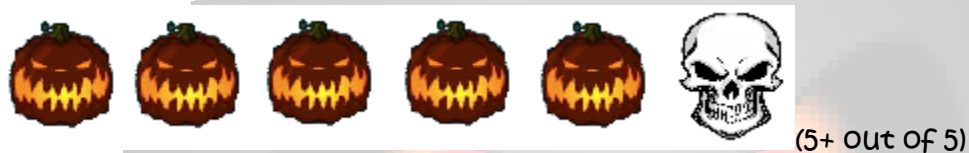

We enter the barn to be greeted by another freak of the farm. A very friendly greeting and assuring we are here for one reason and one reason only... to be slaughtered. As we move through the barn, we are disoriented by the sound of cowbells and screaming coming from every angle. At this point in time the feeling that your heading to an actual slaughterhouse no longer is just a feeling, reality sets in! We move quickly so we can get the hell out of this barn of Carnage. We finally find the EXIT! Or did we?

The crisp cool air and the stars are a sight for sore eyes. This isn't over, there is another building that we must walk through! Reluctantly, we step foot into what appears to be someone's home. We are welcomed to stay for dinner. "What's for dinner?", I ask granny. "You are!" she says! We make our way upstairs, yes you read that correctly, they have expanded to the upstairs. On our way up to the top, ghosts, ghouls and monsters jump out at every possible nook and cranny. When you expect someone or something to be there, they weren't and then all sudden they were behind you or even in from of you! Again, we rush through so we can escape with our lives. Another exit is found, but not before they get another scare in!

Outside once again. Are we done? Are we safe? NOPE! We have to take a stroll through the backwoods, hillbilly infested trail. These backwoods monsters can smell fear, so don't run. If we can just make it through this trail, we will reach the end! We barely make it out!

Terror Farm is the place to be! Again, this is only their second year and again it was outstanding! The acting, props, animatronics, scenes, everything was amazing! This review does NOT do them justice. You must experience Terror Farm for yourself.

We named Terror Farm the #1 Haunted Farm in Pennsylvania last year, we are doing it again! Terror Farm the #1 Haunted Farm in Pennsylvania for 2019!!
